

Bio, July 2019

Daniel Buckingham, Artist and Pratt MWP Professor of Sculpture. Daniel teaches 3-D Design, Sculpture & Seminar in the Fine Arts curriculum in Utica NY. Daniel attended Tulane University and received his BFA and MFA from Alfred University. Daniel traveled solo by bicycle for 8 years exploring more than 60 countries. Buckingham exhibits his work throughout the US and abroad. His work explores Cultural Exchange within the 21st Century context. His large-scale public commission, entitled "Tower of Bells" is located in the Park of Women and Children, Quito, Ecuador. His recent work, "Mirage Series: White Wash" is currently on view at The Hyde Collection in Glens Falls, NY. Daniel enjoys listening to Jazz and Blues music including Sun-Ra and The Art Ensemble of Chicago. Since 2000, he has been a Board-member for Sculpture Space Inc. in Utica, NY. Daniel lives in Clayville NY and shares a studio that he built with his wife, Artist- Tina Betz, their son Owen and daughter Sophie.